

The Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization (OSDBU)

Invites you to a
Black History Month Event

Strengthening Federal Contracting for Minority-Owned Small Businesses

USAID's Office of Small and Disadvantaged Business Utilization (OSDBU) cordially invites you to attend the Celebrating Black History Month: Strengthening Federal Contracting for Minority-Owned Small Businesses webinar on Thursday, February 29, 2024 from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. ET

USAID is committed to expanding the amount of procurement dollars awarded to small business concerns owned and controlled by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals (SDBs), per the Executive Order by the Biden administration.

This webinar reaffirms our commitment to gaining new industry partners by advancing equity in procurement. This webinar will address new and recurring challenges in the federal marketplace in international development.

Who Should Attend: U.S. Small Businesses

When: Thursday, February 29, 2024 • 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. ET

Where: Virtual.
